New ferry won't fit

Festive feel to table top sale

A CHRISTMAS table top sale in aid of Weldmar Hospicecare Trust has been held at the Best Western Hotel Rembrandt in Weymouth. The event produced a huge response with 50 stalls and hundreds of visitors. Organiser Matthew Thorndale-Finn (pictured) said: "It was the first table top sale we have run here but we have had such a fantastic response that it definitely won't be our last. All proceeds will go to general Weldmar funds."

A GIANT new £50 million vessel being built for Condor's ferry service to the Channel Islands is too big to fit its favoured berth in Weymouth.

Condor is currently holding talks with Jersey and Guernsey about a deal to secure ferry services to the Channel Islands for the next 15 years.

If all goes well then Weymouth hopes to negotiate a similar deal with the ferry company once the Channel Islands agreement is signed.

But an important aspect of the talks has seen Condor promise a new ferry for Weymouth to replace two ageing vessels which will be withdrawn.

Weymouth and Portland environment spokesman Councillor Ian Roebuck said: "I think that, while at a push Condor could operate its new vessel from Ferry Berth 3, it does put significant constraint on them.

"If we are going to have a long term agreement with Condor then it would better if the new ferry operated from Ferry Berth 1.

"Adapting FB1 will cost

by Harry Walton

money and, in the first place, this will have to come from Condor with a view to them clawing it back through the extra business that doing this work will attract to Weymouth.

"Operating from FB1 will enable Condor to expand their business and recover their extensive day trade to the Channel Islands which has suffered severely from their enforced move to Poole while Weymouth harbour wall repairs were carried out."

Weymouth and Portland environment director David Evans, who is spearheading talks with Condor said: "Present ferries can handle 175 cars, but the new ferry would be able to take 248 cars.

"The new vessel will be longer than the current ferries and, while Condor says it could work from FB3, there are constraints there because of the new ferry's length, manoeuvrability and the proximity of the linkspan.

"Accordingly they favour operating from FB1 which will need to be adapted to be able to handle this larger vessel."

He confirmed that the rough timescale for the new Condor ferry to operate from Weymouth would be 2015.

Mr Evans said: "We remain in close talks with Condor as we seek to resolve contract issues both over the length of agreement and the vessels and facilities involved.

"It is very much in everyone's interests to have Condor as a confirmed commercial presence in Weymouth well into this century.

"The ferry service not only brings in much needed revenue but provides an important transport link and very important employment."

STEPHEN Lovett lives near Lyme Regis, where he runs Hill Barn Cottages, a self-catering business, with his wife Heather and 17-year-old twin daughters, Sophia and Freya.

Originally from Bath and having spent most of his life in Camberley, Surrey, Stephen and Heather used to visit Dorset regularly and grew increasingly fond of the area.

In 2007, a change in work circumstances coincided with their daughters moving to secondary school and the family decided to take on Hill Barn Cottages.

Stephen is now chairman of the Lyme Regis and Charmouth Hotel and Restaurant Association, and treasurer of the recently formed Lyme Regis Business Group.

● WHY did you take on Hill Barn Cottages?

This was all part of our move from Camberley. Hill Barn was already established as a successful holiday business, with two self-catering cottages on site and the main house being used for bed and breakfast. As we really needed the space, we dropped the B&B straight away and just continued with the cottages. It still makes us smile when we think about the cottage guests seeing the removal lorries arriving half way through their holiday!

● What do you do before moving to the area?

I qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1990 and quickly moved into industry, spending the next 17 years in the commercial vehicle sector - initially as financial controller and ultimately as managing director. Soon after moving to Lyme, I became involved with a new Exeter-based business consultancy, SouthWest FD, and now provide financial and general management support and coaching to businesses on a part-time basis. Working mainly with small and growing businesses from a many different sectors provides me with great variety and flexibility in my work and is incredibly satisfying when I see my input making a real difference.

● What do you think puts Hill Barn apart from other self-catering properties in the area?

Both of our cottages are now graded as "4 Star Gold Award". Heather is undoubtedly the main differentiating factor. She looks after the guest side of our cottage business, paying great attention to detail and doing just about anything to make sure our guests enjoy their stay. Our guests' comments pay testament to this, as does our high number of return visitors - some now treating Hill Barn as their second home and Heather and me, along with our daughters and dog, as their extended family!

● HOW did you become involved with the Hotel & Restaurant Association, and the new Lyme Regis Business Group?

The previous owners of Hill Barn encouraged Heather to join the Hotel & Restaurant Association where she found

● HOW do you think these types of groups benefit local businesses?

I see the key aim of both groups to be much the same - to protect and grow the Lyme Regis economy for the benefit of their members. The groups help to promote the town of Lyme and the businesses operating therein to the local, national and international audience. They also act to protect the best interests of their members through effective campaigning as and when appropriate - current issues include bathing water quality and various aspects of parking.

● DO the groups have any promotions or special events coming up?

Although only formed at the start of the Summer, the business group is already making a real difference in Lyme. We launched the "Love Lyme" newsletter last month and are now busy driving Lyme's biggest ever Christmas sales drive. Badged "Yuletide Lyme", the campaign launches on Saturday, November 30th with the unveiling of 'Windows Wonderland', for which the fronts of businesses around the town will be professionally-painted to depict scenes from "The 12 Days Of Christmas".

● WHAT do you like about the local area?

Just about everything really, and at all times of the year - the extremes of the event-filled peak holiday periods and the absolute calm at other times is something that really appeals to me.

● WHAT do you think it's missing?

Not much really, although I would love to see a more harmonious town council and better parking facilities in the summer.

● WHICH three people would you invite to a dream dinner party?

David Cameron, Alex Salmond and Boris Johnson - for the sheer hell of it !

great support and made lots of new friends. In January 2010 I joined their committee as treasurer and three years later was elected chairman.

In July this year, and following much discussion across the various existing business groups, the new "all inclusive" Lyme Regis Business Group was formed, to represent the interests of all businesses operating in Lyme. Having been instrumental in its formation, I was pleased to continue an active role on their Executive Committee and as treasurer.

Pavilion peninsula plans could 'transform the town'

Community to lead £150million redevelopment project

by Harry Walton

hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

IDEAS for a community-led £150 million redevelopment of Weymouth Pavilion peninsula have been officially backed as part of wider council development plans for the whole town centre.

Arts and community centre uses, a five-star hotel, a market, shops and a refurbished ferry terminal are among possibilities for the peninsula debated at a morning public question and answer session headed by Weymouth resident Jason West.

He is leading the campaign for a fresh look at the site and he joined sustainable community developer Peter Halsall and leading architect Sean Griffiths at the session.

All three said a community-focussed scheme could still be commercially viable before attending an afternoon meeting with Weymouth and Portland environment director David Evans, resources director Jason Vaughan and management committee chairman Councillor Mike Goodman who welcomed their initiative.

Mr West said: "They committed to holding a series of charettes – where a community has input into a development – with Weymouth and Portland residents, businesses and community groups fully engaging in a peninsula project which will form part of a wider development master plan for the whole town centre. They will start putting that in place in Spring 2014."

Mr Griffiths said it was "a pretty positive" council response, Mr Halsall said the council was "enthusiastic" about the peninsula proposals and Mr West added: "What we set out to get from the council we have got.

"We have to forget past animosities and ensure the community, businesses and the council work together for the benefit of Weymouth."

"These proposals are crucial and I view them as a catalyst for a better future for Weymouth. It could transform the town by providing a focal point for the community where everyone could come and eat, drink and play."

"If it is built then hopefully you will have an iconic building that everyone in Dorset and, indeed, the whole country will want to come and see."

He added that he was "just a guy who happens to know Sean who knows Peter who builds £200 million developments".

Mr Halsall told the morning audience: "Our idea as developers is to create a project which allows you to be meaningfully involved with the development of the Pavilion peninsula. It is your town not ours."

Alderman Peter Rendall was quick to point out many people's view that Weymouth and Portland council's idea of consultation was often followed by "then we'll do what we damn well want".

But Mr Griffiths stressed that their concept of community involvement would not be "just lip service" but real involvement "so you understand the constraints we have to work with" while Mr Halsall said: "This would be a genuine process driven by you."

Other audience members urged involvement for local businesses and for all local bodies in the town to be represented and have input into the development.

Some wanted to know if, like the abortive Howard Holdings 2009 scheme for the peninsula, a project might include a residential element because developers want to get their money back and Mr Halsall said this "makes sense".

Weymouth Business Improvement District manager Nigel Reed said he liked the idea of charettes but feared it would take "a long time", also questioning how a steering group would cope "when someone throws their toys out when they don't get what they want".

Mr Griffiths agreed it would "take time to filter through" not least because of the planning process while Mr Halsall reassured the audience that investment could be found for the project.

Others said the town centre was already going downhill with many shopping in Dorchester because Weymouth's main offering was "charity shops, cafes, pubs and clubs", Mr Halsall warning that the peninsula project wouldn't solve High Street problems but would attract people who otherwise wouldn't visit Weymouth, shops and hotel benefitting from that.

Brian Crump of the Friends of Weymouth Pavilion said it would be "illogical" to embrace any scheme which replaced the Pavilion and Mr West replied that the scheme was about "keeping the good things and putting new things round them".

Mr Halsall said the idea of knocking the Pavilion down was "ridiculous". The community had given a clear signal that it wanted to keep the building, he said, so "the first option is to keep it".

Model trains stolen

SEVERAL Hornby model trains have been stolen by burglars who forced their way into a storage unit in Weymouth.

Police say the incident in the Bincombe area of town happened some time between 8.30pm on Sunday, November 17th and 7pm on Monday, December 18th at premises just off Icen Lane. No arrests have been made.

PC Rob Adams of Weymouth Police said: "I am appealing for anyone who may have witnessed this incident or has information about those responsible to contact Dorset Police.

"The owners of the toy trains are extremely keen to have them returned. I would also like to hear from anyone who has been offered Hornby branded toy trains in unusual circumstances."

He added that anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 18:405 or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Calls for businesses to support kite fest

LOCAL businesses are being encouraged to throw their weight behind Weymouth's three-day spectacular kite festival in early May 2014.

Allan Pothecary of the Close Encounters display team said the festival organising committee was encouraging the business community to get their staff involved.

He added: "Local companies are invited to get their staff out for a fun day with one of the new events.

"They have the chance to have a 1.2-metre tall Japanese Rokaku fighting kite, screen printed in their own colours and logos ready to take part in battles twice each day on May 4th and 5th.

"The idea is to try to cut their opponents' line or tip them out of the sky until the last kite remains. Points are totalled over the two days with the winners being the first to get their names on the prestigious trophy.

"Each team will have a professional flyer to help them but will be encouraged to take control for themselves.

"There should be some great inter company or even interdepartmental rivalry and plenty of chances to shout for favourites."

He added that the kite festival is supported by but no longer funded by the council, so entries are vital in raising money.

Anyone interested in having a team take part should make contact through the Weymouth Kite Festival 2014 website or contact committee leader Michael McManus on 07403 598 887.

Michael said the festival wins both ways in 2014 because not only will the town continue to attract vital income but profit made from the festival will be channelled back into the local community.

Allan said: "We are solely dependant on sponsorship this year and would appreciate any help we can get."

Free parking Saturday

RESIDENTS and visitors to Weymouth can enjoy free parking during Small Business Saturday on December 7th.

Free parking will be available in all borough council-run car parks in Weymouth on December 7th but this does not apply to on-street pay and display parking.

Weymouth and Portland transport spokesman Councillor Christine James said: "We always look at ways of supporting small businesses in the town and it is great that we are able to make borough council-run car parks in Weymouth free on December 7th to support the event.

"Free parking on that day is an added extra to the borough council's free evening and overnight parking scheme which was introduced on November 1st."

Small Business Saturday is already an established event in the US, but it is the first year that it has been introduced in the UK and is supported by the Federation of Small Businesses (FSB). The campaign aims to highlight small business success and to encourage people to 'shop local'.

FSB Rural Dorset branch chairman David Trickett said: "We are supporting Small Business Saturday to highlight just how important small businesses are to our communities. It is a great way to get the message to customers that using our local high street retailers will benefit the local economy.

"Small businesses are the lifeblood of our local economy and play a hugely important role in our communities while adding to the unique character of our towns."

Weymouth and Portland economic development spokesman Councillor Ian Munro-Price said: "The event is a chance for small business to showcase themselves and encourage residents to shop locally. It is perfectly timed for people to do their Christmas shopping.

"This festive weekend starts with Victorian Night on Friday December 6th and this means there will be free parking in borough council-run car parks from 6pm Friday evening until 9.30am on the Sunday morning. I urge people to take advantage of the free parking and to come and support the local businesses in Weymouth."

Help at hand on how to keep warm this winter

GUIDANCE on switching energy suppliers and staying warm this winter was on offer in Beaminster during the first of a series of free drop-in sessions yesterday.

Derby Action Community (DCA), with sponsorship from Magna Housing Association, set up in the Skyrn Room at the Public Hall in Beaminster to provide advice and information on where to get help.

Many people are now finding the combination of rising fuel costs, low income and poorly-insulated rural housing a real problem, the organisation said.

Alex Picot, chief executive of Dorset Community Action, said: "Many families will be thinking about how they can cut their energy bills. These events are a good place to start, with plenty of advice and ideas."

"Evidence shows that rural households are twice as likely as their urban counterparts to struggle to afford to heat their homes, due to lower than average incomes and houses that are less energy efficient."

"Dorset Community Action is experienced at working with communities to help them stay warm and use energy more efficiently."

"We ran various events last year and we hope that people will come along to these informal drop-in sessions, which are designed to give the most relevant information for Dorset residents. So please look out for further information and dates on our website www.dorsetcommunityaction.org.uk"

Ken Bodycombe, community investment officer at Magna Housing Association, said: "We think it's vitally important for our Magna residents to save money this winter and we extend a welcome to the wider public to share in this information, the more people who can benefit the better."

DCA hope that people will come along to discuss their own individual energy needs and take part in an energy saving quiz.

A free energy saving appliance, provided by Dorset Energy Advice Centre, will be available at these events.

Healthwatch week

NEXT week a Dorset health watchdog is running a series of events to promote its services.

Healthwatch Dorset Week is being held from Monday, December 2nd, until Friday, December 6th, in an attempt to publicise the organisation's role. According to the group, they give people a voice over the quality of health and care services.

Following reorganisation within the NHS a series of bodies were set up to act as champions for consumers of health services, and Healthwatch Dorset is interested in hearing about people's experiences.

Healthwatch Dorset will use stories from the public to hold the service providers to account and seek improvements where required.

The group is also able to provide information about what services are available and how to access them.

The Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) is a key partner in Healthwatch Dorset. Martin Paley, Bridport CAB manager, said: "In a number of cases a problem with health or care issues is part of a wider picture, related to problems with employment, debt, housing and claiming benefits."

"In addition people also contact us with specific queries on their health or care needs."

"Given the rapid changes to the NHS and the complexity of local authority care services we anticipate seeing these advice needs increase."

Bridport CAB, in South Street, will have a display about the Dorset watchdog, and handouts will be available with information on key contacts in the reception area. The opening hours are 10am to 3pm, Monday to Friday.

For more information on Healthwatch Dorset visit www.healthwatchdorset.co.uk.

Environment Agency grant to develop flood defence scheme

A CRITICALLY important £300,000 grant could unlock millions more for vital sea defence work in Weymouth and Portland.

The grant, which has just been approved by the Environment Agency, will be used to provide the Weymouth Bay Coastal Processes Study.

This will produce a single consistent set of data to underpin the development of three flood alleviation schemes being considered for the area including Weymouth Harbour piling, Weymouth Esplanade and Preston Beach recharge.

stead Bay.

The EA's recent Shoreline Management Plan showed that a significant part of Weymouth faced increased flooding over the next 50-100 years with the Park District particularly at risk from the sea overtaking the beach and from the River Wey.

Rising sea levels also threaten the Esplanade, Westham Bridge, parts of the harbour and Preston Beach with overtaking a "significant" threat to the beach road.

As previously reported, severe coastal erosion could cut the main Portland gas pipeline to 4,000 island homes within 20 years and it also threatens Castle Cove and Old Castle Road while the estimated cost of shoring up Weymouth town centre's sea defences could reach £60 million by 2063.

Weymouth and Portland environment spokesman Councillor Ian Roe buck said the threat to the Portland gas pipeline came from the Rodwell Trail embankment, parts of which have already failed with cracking and settlement around the gas main.

He added: "Getting this £300,000 makes Weymouth and Portland eligible for many millions more which will be vital if we are to protect this area from the sea in coming decades."

"The key areas to benefit will be Weymouth town centre, the Esplanade, Preston Beach and Portland Harbour.

"It was a tough battle to get this £300,000 and great credit goes to environment director David Evans and his team for achieving this by working hard with the Environment Agency. It reflects the esteem Weymouth and Portland is held in by the agency.

"Getting this money was vital because it makes so much more grant available to us to widen the protection we can put in place.

"It is a critically important achievement because until we reached that point the agency was blocking development in Weymouth town centre because of the flood risk.

"This grant will be a lifeline for homes, facilities and businesses by helping to combat erosion caused by climate change. Hopefully we can make Weymouth and Portland secure for a long time to come.

"However, we cannot be complacent because the work paid for by this £300,000 grant must be completed by 2015 to allow other money to be tapped for other projects.

"Any delay could both affect what can be done and what money we have to do it."

Spreading some Christmas cheer

SANTA was in his grotto when Weymouth's Radipole United Reformed Church held its Christmas Fayre.

Youngsters were only too happy to meet Father Christmas or explore stalls which included toys, bric-a-brac, games, gifts, shoeboxes for children, cakes, a tombola and a raffle.

The Reverend David Morgan said: "Half the proceeds will go to our church and half to Weldmar Hospicecare Trust and the Samaritans Purse.

"It was nice to spread a bit of Christmas cheer and to see so many people enjoying themselves." Pictured is The Reverend David Morgan at the fayre.

Lifeboat crew raise a glass to beer fundraiser

WEYMOUTH'S Red Lion pub landlord Brian McLaughlin has handed over a cheque for £500 to Weymouth RNLI lifeboat station.

The money was raised by donating ten pence for every pint of Lifeboat Bitter brewed by the Otter Brewery in Devon and sold in the Red Lion over the last year.

Brian laid on a buffet for the crew of Weymouth lifeboat when he handed over the cheque to lifeboat Coxswain Andy Sargent.

This is the second year that the Red Lion has donated money to the RNLI from the sale of this beer.

Blue plaque marks arrival of the Methodist faith in Dorset

by Harry Walton

A MAJOR religious discovery has revealed that a Weymouth shop is the building where founder John Wesley held what is thought to be Dorset's first Methodist meeting in 1776.

Now the importance of Epworth Villa at 14 Gloucester Street has been marked by a Wesley Historical Society blue plaque unveiled by Poole and Swanage Superintendent Minister, the Reverend Chris Moreton.

He said he couldn't begin to guess what John Wesley's sermon contained all those years ago, but he was sure his remarks then would be relevant to share now in modern society.

Among those attending was Weymouth and Portland Mayor and Mayoress, Councillor Ray Banham and Councillor Pam Nixon, and Mr Banham said: "It is lovely that another site in Weymouth has been highlighted for its historical importance and I hope it attracts the attention it deserves. It is a great day for Methodism in Weymouth."

It took more than a year of painstaking work by WHS archivist John Russell to confirm the importance of the site which is now the Body, Soul and Spirit spiritual retail shop run by Allison Chan and business partner John Conway.

The couple said: "We are delighted. This is a new discovery which has taken a lot of research up and down the country to confirm that our building is the missing link to 'the new house in Melcombe' which is mentioned in John Wesley's journals."

■ THE blue plaque on Epworth Villa in Gloucester Street

After the property was purchased, John and Allison looked at the original deeds which dated back to the 1700s. The documentation contained an indenture which named John Wesley. Other documents confirmed that the property used to be an early Methodist Prayer House and for a period of time the Methodist Society owned the property.

Allison and John contacted members of the Methodist Church and after intense research it was determined that Epworth Villa was noted in John Wesley's journals of 1776 including the comment: "I preached at the new house in Melcombe, to as many as it would well contain."

Allison said: "It is a total dream. I am just so amazed at this property's marvellous history. Fate brought us Weymouth, almost 100 miles away from anyone we know, to start a spiritual shop in a property we've now discovered was used in the 18th and 19th century for prayer and spiritual connection. I am looking forward to explaining this to visitors attracted by our Blue Plaque."

Sing up! It's Christmas time in Weymouth

■ MEMBERS of the One Voice Choir along with schoolchildren from Weymouth launch their charity Christmas CD

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

An audience heard children join the One Voice Choir to sing excerpts from a Christmas songs CD.

The event at Hope United Reformed Church, which was in aid of Weymouth Food Bank and Weymouth and Portland Children's Centres, was also filmed by the BBC.

Master of Ceremonies Paul Ryan said: "The whole CD by the One Voice Choir is based round its title song, It's Christmas Time in Weymouth by John Ellis with music by Andy Hague.

"One Voice raises money for global charities and we have all been surprised at how popular this CD has become in such a short space of time.

"The event at Hope Church officially launched the CD and the main hall was packed."

Among guests were Weymouth and Portland Mayor and Mayoress, Ray Banham and Pam Nixon.

Mr Banham said: "I think this CD is fantastic.

"I have listened to it several times and it is well worth £5. It is the proper spirit of Christmas and will raise money for good causes as well."

Anyone who would like to buy a copy of the CD can do so at Weymouth Pavilion and a variety of other outlets detailed on the One Voice website, www.onevoiceweymouth.com.

■ FORTY stalls packed out Weymouth's Budmouth College Hub Avenue for a busy Christmas Fair.

The event was held in aid of the Year 11 Prom on July 4th, 2014.

Fair organiser Emma Cartwright said: "I was thrilled to get so many stalls full of amazing hand-made crafts. It was more than double what we had last year."

"Lots of local businesses came along from beauticians to lingerie outlets and we had hundreds of visitors ready to do some serious Christmas shopping!"

In fact there were so many visitors that at times queues built up at the entrance before shoppers hurried inside to sample chutneys, pies and other treats or just browse Christmas offerings.

Folk festival dates announced

WESSEX Folk Festival committee has confirmed that the dates for its 2014 event will be May 30th-June 1st.

Spokesman Amy Hopwood said: "It is a tribute to everyone involved in the festival's organisation and those who kindly volunteered on the weekend that the event has remained in a financially sound state in these difficult times and we would like to thank all involved.

"We are now inviting applications to play at next year's festival and, as always, are keen to showcase local up-and-coming musicians as well as the more established ones.

"If you would like to put yourself forward, please contact us through our website - www.wessexfolk.co.uk - before the end of 2013."

Schools join forces for anti-bullying summit

MAINSTREAM school pupils and youngsters from a specialist academy for children with disabilities have joined forces for a "summit" to mark national Anti-Bullying Week.

School council members from Wey Valley School and Wyvern Academy in Weymouth were due to meet to draw up a "charter" on the theme: "The Future is ours. Safe, Fun and Connected".

The two schools, which are both co-operative academies and share a campus and facilities in Dorchester Road, work closely together to support integration among pupils.

Assistant headteacher Richard Holt said: "We believe we have a great model here with youngsters from both schools being part of each other's lives on a regular basis, and not distanced from each other."

"Once upon a time, not so very long ago, children with disabilities were virtually hidden from the rest of the world and effectively excluded from their local community, however, now thankfully the world has changed."

"However, despite that, sadly not all disabled children have positive experiences, and there are regularly stories in the press about young people being bullied and attacked, just for being 'different'."

"All forms of bullying are harmful to the bully, the victim, and to witnesses. The effects can last well into adulthood."

According to the Anti-Bullying Alliance youngsters with disabilities are more likely to face bullying than their peers with 36 per cent reporting verbal abuse, followed by emotional (30 per cent), physical (28 per cent) and two per cent reporting either sexual or racial bullying.

Wyvern Academy is a purpose-built school in Weymouth for children and young people aged from two to 19 with complex needs, including Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD).

New buildings get civic society seal of approval

NEW developments with striking architectural merit have been recognised by Weymouth Civic Society at their annual awards night.

The evening at the Nothe Fort began with society vice-chairman Pru Bollam presenting life membership to their planning sub-committee secretary Brenda Pickett.

Mrs Bollam paid tribute to her "deep knowledge and care for Weymouth", adding that her "efficiency and thoroughness" were "a huge benefit to the society".

The event then moved on to the presentation section, making a total of eight awards.

Society chairman Mary Bennett said they had had some "thoroughly interesting" buildings to visit and she added: "It was absolutely fascinating touring them all."

Entries varied from landmark buildings to tiny hidden away constructions "but all worthy of the same attention", she said.

Among four Certificates of Merit awards was the New Look Support Centre in Mercury Road, Weymouth, the society saying: "The most striking element is a corner feature of raked curtain walling in dark glass on the north end of the building, giving a dramatic first impression of this 'gateway' site."

Another Certificate went to the nearby Beefeater Restaurant, described as "an attractive new restaurant building, the form and composition of which add visual interest to its setting, with thoughtful use of local materials".

A third Certificate went to 57A The Esplanade, a new end-of-terrace building which has been "carefully designed to follow the Georgian character of the Esplanade and to echo the appearance of the original curved buildings that round off the ends of the terraces at important points of the Esplanade".

The final Certificate went to the new Steps Club for Young People on Chickener Road, Weymouth which the society said had been "thoughtfully designed in co-operation with the youth community", adding that it provides "much enhanced facilities".

The society also made two commendation awards, the first going to new houses at Chalbury Dene, Wyke Oliver Road, Preston, which it said were "a well built and attractive terrace" which "makes a positive contribution to the local built environment".

The other commendation went to the former United Reformed Church schoolroom and vestry at Chiswell, Portland - now Stonehall - The Stonehouse and The Vestry, which the society said "have been skilfully converted to accommodate two residential properties with the former church adapted as a functional space", adding: "This ingenious conversion on a cramped and steeply sloping site has ensured the future of this historic group of Victorian church buildings."

Finally, two letters of appreciation were written, the first to the Isle of Portland Aldridge Community Academy Osprey Quay Campus which the society described as having been "thoughtfully planned to provide a valuable educational facility" which "fits well into a difficult site".

A second letter went to the Jurassic Coast information point and seating on Weymouth Esplanade "in appreciation of the attractive stone seating and information point on the Esplanade by the Jubilee Clock".

This was a project of the borough council in co-operation with the county council's Jurassic Coast World Heritage Team.

£800 for St John Ambulance

ST JOHN Ambulance has been presented with an £800 cheque by Hugh Chalker who was retiring as Chief Ranger of the Honorary Court Highclere No. 1 Weymouth of the Ancient Order of Foresters.

He said: "I chose St John Ambulance because of the good work they have done for the people of Weymouth and Portland over many years."

Foresters and their wives gathered at Pilgrim House in Hope Square, the Court having met in Weymouth four times a year ever since 1887 when it was founded by Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Town Clerk Pelly Hooper.

Each Chief Ranger

chooses a charity for his year of office and Hugh Chalker picked St John Ambulance.

He said: "I chose St John Ambulance because of the good work they have done for the people of Weymouth and Portland over many years."

Foresters and their wives gathered at Pilgrim House, their new meeting venue, to present the cheque.

Beavers care for the environment

■ BEAVERING away at tree planting

THIRTY trees provided by the Woodland Trust have been planted at Cockles Lane in Weymouth by members of Weymouth and District Beavers.

The project, which contributed towards the beavers' coveted environmental badge, formed part of general tree planting in the area by the Society for the Protection of Markham and Little Francis.

Among trees planted were wild cherry, silver birch and rowan trees.

Beavers leader Sue Carter said: "We are a stand alone beaver colony so this environmental badge is even more worthy because we have had to organise everything ourselves."

"It is something which will benefit the community and our beavers have also done garden work at Westham Community Church Centre."

Bumper festive event for church funds

A BUMPER festive event took place when Weymouth's St Paul's Church held its biggest ever Christmas bazaar.

There were so many stalls that they flooded out of the hall and into the church itself where there was also a popular Santa's grotto.

Organiser Helen Green said: "We had books, cakes, bric-a-brac, a bottle stall, cards, a grand draw and many other stalls."

"All money raised will go towards the general running of the church and any maintenance projects which might be needed."

Last piece of the cycling puzzle goes on display

A THREE-option blueprint has been drawn up for the future of cycling in Weymouth town centre.

All three went on show to the public for their views at a special exhibition in Weymouth Library.

by Harry Walton

The first option takes Petit Tour de Manche cyclists arriving at the ferry terminal from Europe, visitors exploring the town and surrounding area and resident cyclists and shepherds them along existing signed routes out to Westham Bridge where they can spread out on to the wider cycling network via Weymouth Way or Radipole Park Drive.

Option two provides a dedicated cycle lane on Westham Road and a contraflow system to bring cyclists to Westham Bridge while the third option takes cyclists along the Esplanade to Gloucester Street where the one-way system will be reversed to allow cyclists to go down to Commercial Road before spreading out into the cycle system.

County principal engineer Mike Read attended the exhibition and said: "This is probably the most important series of proposals for cycling that Weymouth town centre has ever seen.

"What we are trying to do is end up with a system that locals and visitors like.

■ MIKE Read at the exhibition

"We want to connect the town centre with other recently built cycleways such as those along Weymouth Way and Radipole Park Drive.

"Weymouth town centre is the last piece in this cycling puzzle and we held the exhibition so people could have their say.

"We wanted visitors to approve or disapprove the options, say why or come up with options of their own.

"We have now taken all those comments away for analysis ahead of a more detailed version of the proposals being drawn up.

"If all goes well the county council will decide which option to support and we hope to be able to start work on that option within the next 12-18 months.

"It would then take about two months to build, so cyclists could be using it by summer 2015."

Anyone who wants to put their views forward but missed the exhibition should do so by the December 16th deadline by going on line at dorsetforyou.com/cycleway-improvements.

■ JOHN Worth gets into the Christmas spirit

Christmas crafts at festive fair

FESTIVE spirit was much in evidence when the Chickereill Christmas Craft Fair was held at the Willowbed Hall.

Nearly 20 stalls attracted a steady stream of visitors with all proceeds going to the community Christmas lunch in the Hall on December 15th.

Organiser John Worth said: "We had everything from jewellery, cards, wooden crafts and cakes to flower arranging and cosmetics.

"It was the third time we have held this event and it just gets bigger every year."

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

'Tis the season for fancy dress

CHILDREN in Need went off well this year with the usual colourful collection of individuals doing weird and wacky things to raise money for the national appeal.

I had my coffee served to me by Andy Pandy, met the Incredible Hulk in the street and managed to dodge what I think was a dancing dog although the anatomy seemed a bit suspect.

Television antics may capture the attention of millions but little local efforts always play their part including the likes of Helen's Famous Wholefoods in Weymouth where it was impossible not to be tempted by cinnamon swirls and chocolate brownies. I would also have been tempted by some cherry creations but they'd all gone!

Elsewhere children sold their toys, there were suggestions for Children in Need Christmas presents while more money was being raised by staff in pyjamas at a variety of locations.

Yes, we're well and truly into the costume season now. Just carol singers, elves and Father Christmas to go before the onslaught of New Year's Eve and a kaleidoscope of outfits hitting the streets.

Putting the cost of Christmas into perspective

JUST got to share this little Christmas shopping bill with you which I roughly assembled after a Sunday being dragged round various outlets in the Weymouth area.

How much do you reckon that eight large reindeer, a small sleigh, two or three decent sized fake Christmas trees, a couple of large snowmen to put round your door, a happy flashing Robin, a few yards of coloured flashing lights and a fat, jolly Santa figure to welcome visitors would cost?

No idea, can't even come up with a decent guess? Well, believe it or not, you won't get much change out of £10,000.

I was threatening a nosebleed after I worked that one out I can tell you!

Just who can afford even a fraction of that figure for what are, after all, decorations which will be up for not much more than a month out of the entire year!

More to the point, if there are fat cats who can splash out like this, where are they? For a start, it's not me or any of my neighbours.

I do have a modest garden ski run lined with torch-carrying elves with sensors which trigger "We Wish You A Merry Christmas" as I swish past them down to the ice rink, lodge and eggnog fountain, but doesn't everyone?

My wife says she is increasingly switched off by the commercialism of Christmas and that at a time when we are all being encouraged to give generously to help Phillipines disaster victims.

Puts it all in perspective, doesn't it, when you realize one furry reindeer could pay for a stricken family to get a new home. I think we'll make do with our old decorations this year.

Residents' cry for help

RESIDENTS' tempers are growing a little short in one Weymouth street.

They have had cars vandalised by teenagers and part of a wall kicked down by a group of children as young as eight. Police attended, various searches were carried out but the little darlings who ran off after damaging the wall dodged initial attempts to feel their collar while the teenage car vandals made good their escape just after midnight....when all the street lights were switched out as part of council attempts to make savings!

Perhaps they'll continue to evade the increasingly short arm of the law but, if they don't, well I'm sure the courts will let them off after hearing that these incidents were only "a cry for help".

What a pity that authority is not so sensitive to residents' cries for help.

Falling on deaf ears...literally!

SOME politicians can be deaf to any entreaty but some of them really are....well, deaf.

So it was at a recent full council meeting where one issue sparked a mass recorded vote.

Every councillor was called by name and had to publicly say which way they were voting.

All went by the book like someone reading out a telephone directory of names until this particular councillor was called...followed by a stunning silence.

It turned out they didn't have their hearing aid with them and so couldn't hear the call to vote, but Weymouth and Portland isn't held in the esteem it is without being able to call on all the cutting edge solutions available to modern politics.

So the colleague next to the hard of hearing councillor simply leaned over and elbowed them in the ribs, provoking a stentorian "Against!" comment to the hilarity of the entire council chamber!

You've got to be in it to win

WELL, I've managed to get my first draw tickets bought for the one and only Christmas draw I support.

This puts me in something of a minority since there are Christmas draws in full cry in a variety of pubs, clubs, shops and businesses for every sort of prize from a turkey to a kiss from the boss and people often try their luck in as many as half a dozen different draws.

Fortunately I'm safe from receiving a big smacker as my boss isn't involved in my draw, but the staggering amount of money shelled out for these festive bonanzas is an important boost for charities.

Some are so well supported that they raise thousands of pounds for one good cause or another, so get out there and buy a few tickets. Even if you don't win some charity will.

Why can't people clean up after their dogs?

■ I FEEL that I have to write this, because I regularly use the beach at Weymouth, and it amazes me how the council does not make people clean up behind their dogs.

The signs on the promenade tell the public - clearly - where they can take their dog, and yet on ALL Dorset beaches, people still insist on walking their dogs where they shouldn't be.

I was recently told by a council worker that the beach is cleaned every morning at 5:30am. But when I am there, every week between 10am and 2pm, there is always dog mess on the sand. There are out-of-control dogs as well, running all over my things. Last week, one tipped my hot tea over my coat. The owner simply said, 'smile, it's a lovely day'. He did not say sorry for the inconvenience of having my coat spoiled. I also lost my cup of tea!

The owners of badly-behaved dogs are always rude. A few weeks ago, a dog called Daisy was trying to climb into a baby's pram. It then proceeded to annoy me, until I told it to go away. The owner, as ever, did nothing. At the same time, there was a lady walking with a one-year old child, who noticed yet another pile.

She explained to me that she was very worried about the situation, and for her baby's health and well-being. I said to her, 'do you know that your baby could become blind from this?' She said that she did. She said that she had contacted the council and had not received a reply.

Dogs are only kept off the beach from June 1st until September 30th, which is only high season. They should be off for the whole season - stretching from April 1st until 31st October. Both ends of the beach have an area which can be used by dogs, all year round. The middle of the beach should be maintained clean, for people with children and people who would like a dog-free environment.

This beach, as with all others, is long enough to accommodate everyone. There is a sign on the seafront wall which reads, 'dog owners will be fined £500 for not cleaning up behind their dog'

sign close to my home says, '£1000 fine'. The council seems to have done nothing about this problem.

Many people would welcome a change in legislation for the new season, I think that Dorset County Council should consider it. Considering the number of people that come to Weymouth especially for the beach, it is reasonable to suggest that the council would want a Blue Flag beach there. Weymouth is a town centered around the coast, and the people - especially families - who use it.

Last chance to have your say

■ AS your readers may be aware Dorset Police and the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner have been examining all areas of the Force to identify and deliver savings in the face of ongoing cuts to the policing budget.

As part of this, the provision of Counter Services has been reviewed and at the beginning of October we launched a consultation process with the public and public sector partners in relation to how this service may look in the future.

We have had a very positive and understanding response so far which is helping us achieve the balance between meeting public expectation and the funding shortfalls, while protecting frontline policing.

Please note that the consultation process closes on November 29th and we would like to remind your readers that there is still time to provide feedback.

It is important to us that we listen to all of our communities during this engagement process and we would urge anyone with suggestions or concerns to make contact via the Dorset Police website www.dorset.police.uk or by writing to: One Team Project, Police Headquarters, Winfrith Newburgh, Dorchester, Dorset, DT2 8DZ.

'Lock it or lose it'

AN increase in thefts from vehicles and outbuildings has led to a 'lock it - or lose it' warning.

The Dorset Community Safety Partnership are highlighting what they describe as a rise in 'acquisitive crimes'.

The partnership, which includes Dorset Police, Dorset Probation Trust, local authorities and other agencies says it needs the public's help to tackle crime.

"It's a worrying trend" said Councillor Ray Nottage, Chair of the Community Safety Partnership, "but one we can work together to do something about."

He says people can help by locking their buildings and vehicles, securing their valuables and registering items of property for free on the National Property Register at www.immobilise.com.

People are also asked to remain vigilant and report any suspicious behaviour in their neighbourhood to the police.

Help and information on living safer are also available from Safer neighbourhood police officers and local neighbourhood and home watch contacts. Advice can also be obtained via the links on the www.dorset.police.uk website.

New service supporting victims of crime

DORSET police have launched a new service aimed at supporting victims of crime.

Victims' Commissioner Baroness Helen Newlove officially opened the Dorset Victims' Bureau and was joined by Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill and Chief Constable Debbie Simpson during a ceremony at Bournemouth Central Police Station.

Baroness Newlove, Victims' Commissioner for England and Wales said: "I congratulate the police and Mr Underhill on this excellent initiative. As Victims' Commissioner, I'm looking for a change in the way we care for and support victims and that change is happening in Dorset. The victims' bureau puts the needs of victims exactly where they should be - at the very heart of criminal justice system."

Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner Mr Underhill said: "Victims are at the heart of my work and I will always put them first.

"I am excited to launch the Dorset Victims' Bureau which is one of only two in England and Wales. By next year the bureau will grow into the first multi-agency victim's service in the country, encompassing all of the Criminal Justice Agencies, meaning that victim's will be updated and supported as they travel the whole criminal justice journey.

"The bureau next year will also assist those victims who, for various reasons, do not pick up the phone to report their crime to the police."

Inspector Mike Kynaston, who is the project manager for the bureau said: "The Dorset Victims' Bureau will ensure that victims are fully informed and updated during their journey through the criminal justice system. Victims will be updated by a dedicated team ensuring a consistent and professional service. It will allow frontline officers and staff to dedicate more time to investigating and preventing crime."

"The focus for the bureau is to meet victim needs' and improve the public's satisfaction in policing.

Dorset's gritters prepare for chilly winter

■ GRITTER driver Ben Doidge

GRITTING lorries are already out and about tackling the first Dorset ice of the winter.

The county council is on its guard for 2013 after a busy 2012 required more than 100 runs to keep Dorset roads clear, a third higher than in an average year, at a cost of more than £600,000.

Gritter routes have been planned and there are plentiful supplies of rock salt to tackle 2,500 miles of urban and rural roads that the authority is responsible for with emphasis on 650 miles of core roads used by 80 per cent of vehicles.

Crucial to this operation is a daily, detailed local forecast which guides decisions on what action needs to be taken and when is the most effective time to spread the salt, particularly on hilly sections such as Bowleaze, Portland Heights, Lanehouse, Southill and Upwey.

Gritters will often go out several times, night and day, to ensure main routes are kept as clear as possible, salting 22 gritting routes in two networks, priority and community using a fleet of 26 gritters in six depots across the county including Charminster and Bridport. All gritters can be fitted with snow ploughs if needed.

By Harry Walton

The county council treats its roads using 6mm rock salt, commonly called grit, which works by lowering the freezing point of water. It combines with the ice and melts it. This reaction stops working at temperatures around -9C. The salt used is supplied by a Northern Ireland company.

Rock salt is applied to road at various rates depending how cold it is. Each complete gritting run uses 110 tonnes of rock salt, and costs £6,000.

There is currently a stock of 12,000 tonnes of rock salt which is normally enough to cover two winters. Supplies will be replenished after Christmas to make sure there is enough.

There are also 1,000 salt bins across the county that parish, town and borough councils use for local lightly used routes and pavements. These bins are filled by the county council at the beginning of winter and further stocks can be ordered if needed.

Snow often causes difficulties on the roads. Pre-treatment of roads before snow fall is essential as this makes it easier to clear snow from the road once it has settled.

The council aims to apply a heavy coat of salt to both the priority and community networks before it starts snowing to aid this. Up to 1,000 tonnes of salt can be used in 24 hours during snow conditions.

During a heavy snow storm it is often difficult to keep roads fully cleared until it has stopped and then a clear-up operation starts. In extreme conditions the county council has a list of contractors and farmers who can help with clearing snow.

Anyone who wants to find out more about gritting schedules and routes can visit www.dorsetforyou.com/winter while winter travel conditions can be checked with TravelDorset at www.dorsetforyou.com/travel/dorset or on Twitter @TravelDorset.

A magic box that keeps a child alive

To date, people of the world have donated more than £200 million for the Philippines victims of Typhoon Haiyan, of which more than £40 million has come from UK donors and another £50 million from the British Government.

In addition, the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank are giving £650 million in grants and emergency loans.

But for the four million Filipinos who lost everything in the hellstorm, it will not be enough.

Why? Because coping with a natural disaster isn't just for Christmas – it takes years, years, for a devastated area to recover.

And while the poor souls of Tacloban, the Philippines' worst-hit city, can probably get by for that long before KFC is rebuilt, they won't last a week without water.

In Haiti, aid agencies were still carrying in water two years after the earthquake of 2010 levelled the island and destroyed the clean water supply.

Clean water is the most essential relief wherever there is a disaster on the planet. Food and shelter run a close second but it's water that makes the difference between life or, as detailed below, a grotesque death.

The dangers of drinking waste water after a disaster should be obvious, but in case they are not, here they are: typhoid, cholera, e-coli, leptospirosis and hepatitis E; each one comes with a free ride to the morgue.

Devon, Dorset & Somerset Newspapers Limited, the publishers of this newspaper, have committed to a two-year charity campaign in association with the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge because there, at the little Somerset town of Midsomer Norton, they have ingeniously developed an ideal solution to this problem of how long it takes after a disaster for clean water to run through the pipes again.

It's called The Water Survival Box and it's just that – a plastic box crammed with all that you need to stay alive after you have lost everything; cooking and eating utensils, basic means of shelter, all sorts of essential bits and bobs, and, most importantly, a simple water-purification system that will provide a family of four with clean water every day for a year. You can read more about it at www.worldwaterworks.org but it's simple – pour in waste water and clean water comes out, like magic.

The boxes cost £150 to fit out and send to disaster zones; a hundred and fifty quid to keep a family alive for a year.

Since Typhoon Haiyan struck, Chelwood Bridge's Hugo Pike and his team of tireless Rotarians have been working flat out packing and shipping Water Survival Boxes to the Philippines. But stocks are running low, and although donations are thankfully coming in, more and more boxes are going to be needed in the long time it will take yet before clean water is running again.

Because for us clean water is such a given, guaranteed to be always there whenever we turn on a tap, it is difficult to imagine life without it. It is harder still to imagine what it feels like to be without it.

But this is the reality of what happens when an earthquake, tsunami or typhoon takes out the water supply:

Because of disasters, every 20 seconds somewhere in the world a child aged under five dies of dehydration. Let's count them as we explore what it feels like to endure the 7-10 days that it takes to die of thirst. Here's what doctors expertly say:

"As dehydration begins, you become very tired. You can't urinate easily and when you can your urine is dark brown; later, as it concentrates, you can't urinate at all and your bladder will burn. You want to cry but there is no liquid in you for tears."

Then a severely-painful headache starts. Your mouth dries and becomes caked with thick saliva, your tongue swells and cracks, your eyes recede into their sockets, the lining cracks in your nose (ONE DEAD) and it begins to bleed.

"You start to feel dizzy and then seizures begin. Your heart starts to race and so does your breathing, you are panting as your blood pressure drops. Terrible cramps attack your arms and legs, you cannot stand nor sit down. Your temperature rises, you feel very hot because you cannot sweat. You feel nauseous but can only dry-heave, and then the cramps painfully attack your stomach

"Your skin hangs loose, dries and becomes scaly, your muscles become spastic. Then, as your brain cells (TWO DEAD) dry out, you start convulsing. Your eyesight fades, thick secretions begin to plug your lungs, you struggle to breathe. You become more and more exhausted, you may hallucinate. Then seizures grip the body and you fall into a coma and your heart stops."

As Dr. David Stevens, a US physician who has seen thousands die of thirst during 13 years in Africa, says: "Contrary to those that try to paint a picture of a gentle process, death by dehydration is a cruel, inhumane and often agonising death."

Every day, (THREE DEAD) 4,109 children die of thirst like that because natural disasters like hurricanes, earthquakes and flooding have left them with no clean water.

That's 171 every hour, three a minute, dying like that. Every minute of every day, three children die like that; tongue cracked, nose bleeding, convulsed in agony. Children are dying like that in the Philippines now, for want of a Water Survival Box.

As it happens, right now is the best time to donate at www.worldwaterworks.org because (FOUR DEAD) for a 13-day window from December 5-18 every £1 donated online will be doubled to £2 under an initiative by the Red Foundation called The Big Give Challenge.

"What would you do if you'd lost everything in a disaster?" asks Hugo Pike.

One answer, I suppose, would be to hope than somebody like you is reading this.

Because in six more seconds, a FIFTH child will have agonisingly died from the lack of clean water.

◆ In a bid to raise £10,000 over two years for Water Survival Box, we are encouraging our readers and local organisations in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset, where we distribute in excess of 40,000 papers every week, to organise an event for Water Survival Box.

Our staff are also planning a number of fundraising events and so far we have raised £500.

If you would like to organise an event, telephone James Coles on 01297 446155 and we will help promote your event in our columns.

The Commercial Law Practice Law Made Simple

THE Bridport office of The Commercial Law Practice opened in July this year, building on the success of the Poundbury office, which opened in 2006.

Saul Kelleher, Director at the Bridport office, is very grateful for the support received from the firm's clients and, more generally, from the Bridport community. The office has had a fantastic start, building on an existing client base and attracting new business, not just from the Bridport area, but from Beaminster to the north and Lyme Regis to the west. It is a small, personal office where clients are greeted and seen when they arrive. The firm does not believe that law should be "stuffy" and aims to be direct and straightforward at all times.

The Bridport office handles residential conveyancing transactions and specialises in property law generally. Saul Kelleher is a Solicitor-Advocate (Higher Courts Civil Proceedings) and specialises in civil and commercial litigation. He has built up a reputation for dealing with disputes generally, but in particular, property and boundary disputes, debt recovery, probate disputes, professional negligence claims, employment disputes and equine law. Between the two offices the firm offers a full range of services to its clients and its staff are always happy to see how they might assist any potential clients.

The Bridport office is looking to continue to grow its client base and its staff offering a free first consultation of 20 minutes where individuals can get direct, pragmatic advice.

HOW SAFE IS YOUR CHILD'S CAR SEAT?

Join us for a free safety check -Monday 2nd December or Saturday the 7th 2-5pm Babygear Car Park, Gundry Lane Bridport DT6 3RL

BABYGEAR recently carried out a survey on the safety of children's car seats. We found all car seats we checked to be suitable for the car they were in but over 80% were either too loose or parents had not adjusted the harness properly to accommodate the growth of the child. This was rectified immediately at no cost to parents. Each year over 200 children are seriously injured in their car seats. New regulations introduced in July aim to improve the safety of car seats. These will come into effect over the next few years and include recommendations that babies stay in a rearward facing car seat until they are 15months.

Surveys (including those done by the AA and car seat manufacturer Britax) show that over 60-80% of car seats are unsafe. They can be wrong for the car, wrong for the child or incorrectly fitted this is more common with those purchased on line. With Christmas approaching and icy roads imminent, Babygear are offering a free check every afternoon during the first week of December from 2-5pm.

We are happy to check any car seat from birth to 12 years. There will be no charge and the check should take approx.10 minutes.

For directions to Babygear and to see our latest offers on car seats visit babygearbridport.co.uk. Or phone 01308 422552

❄ Lassels

Lassels Xmas Lights

by Benjamin Parker

A NEW West Bay shop saw a glamorous Christmas lights switch-on with the help of two beauty queens.

Lassels, on West Bay Road, has only been open a month but got into the festive spirit with assistance from a former Miss England and a former Miss Dorset.

Former Miss England Jackie Turner and Annabell Newman, who was Miss Dorset in 2012, came to the shop on Sunday, welcoming customers and lighting up the Christmas displays across the whole shop.

Vanessa Norris, owner of Lassels, was formerly a paralegal, and this is her first time running a shop.

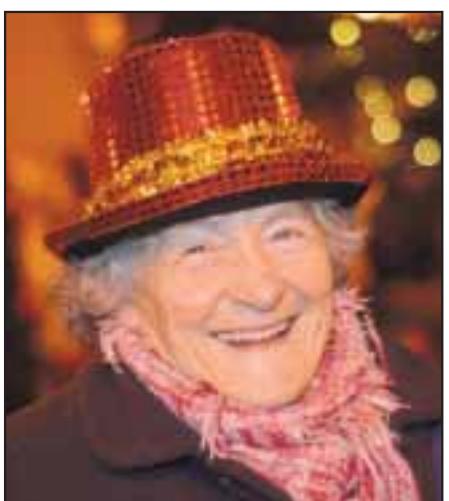

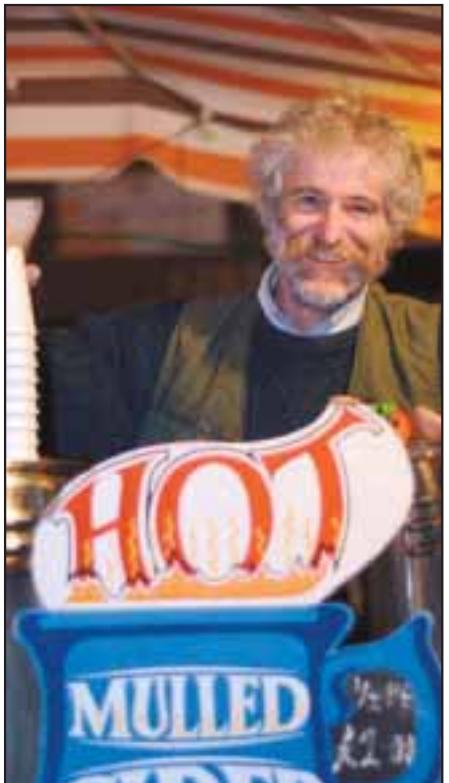

She said: "We were walking past and saw the shop, put in an offer and it was ours. We sell lots of gifts and souvenirs, and right now we've got Christmas things in but in the new year we'll be changing – we're trying to keep it seasonal, obviously looking for more beach stuff towards the summer."

"There aren't a lot of shops down around here but we've been quite lucky because we have been busy even though we've only been open a number of weeks. We've even had regulars who keep coming back, they're lovely people."

Jackie Turner, who was crowned Miss England in 2003, said: "It's a lovely shop. I've been hearing lots about Broadchurch and the area, it's very famous. Being able to turn on the Christmas lights will help get into the Christmas spirit."

Sunnydays Nursery

DIRECTORS, Joy and David Scadden, launched Sunny Days Nurseries in 1995 and ever since they have grown and developed the business in West Dorset and have not lost sight of their initial desire for the best quality for children and families.

▲ Acting Manager
Aimée Scadden.

At Sunny Days Bridport, a fully refurbished original Georgian Coach House in the heart of Bridport town centre, we have bright, colourful play rooms, a cosy cot room, a dedicated dining room and a large all-weather outdoor playground which features a 'Jurassic coastline' area with HMS Sunny Days boat resting on the pebbles! Another lovely feature is our outdoor play area specifically designed for babies so they can play safely, away from the 'hustle and bustle' of pre-school!!!

Sunny Days Nursery in Bridport will be open to the public for Bridport's Christmas lights switch-on from 6pm until 8pm on Wednesday 4th December.

There will be a free crèche for 2 to 5 year olds on the night as well as nappy changing facilities and a free lucky dip for children. The staff will be on hand to show people around the newly refurbished nursery (all staff are qualified and CRB checked), with exciting changes to our baby room, a fresh look for 2014!

Donations for mince pies and hot chocolate are welcome for the Shoe Box Charity that the nursery is supporting this year.

Acting Manager Aimée Scadden (pictured) says, "Sunny Days Bridport achieved a GOOD Ofsted rating this year and are really pleased and keen to show parents and families our fabulous refurbished nursery and our fantastic services that we are providing for children. Please visit us to see for yourself".

TOP FOLK GUITARIST TO PLAY IN BRIDPORT

Martin Simpson will perform at Bridport Arts Centre

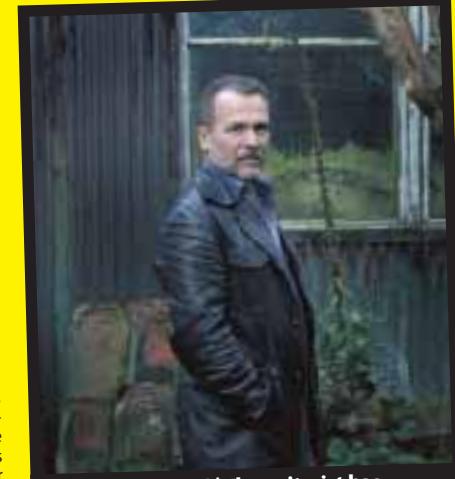

ONE of the finest acoustic and slide guitar players in the UK at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday 30 November, 8pm. Martin Simpson has been playing professionally for over 35 years, and there is no doubt that right now, he is better than ever. His interpretations of traditional songs are masterpieces of storytelling. His solo shows are intense, eclectic, spellbinding and deeply moving.

There is no-one who has more successfully combined the diverse elements of British, Afro-American and old-timey music than Simpson. His 15 years living in the US were well spent. In addition his own songwriting has produced some real gems, from the truck-stop epic, "Love Never Dies" to the profoundly moving "Never Any Good" and "One Day".

His career includes collaborations on stage and record with June Tabor, Kelly Joe Phelps, Jackson Browne, Danny Thompson, Danú, Martin Carthy, Cara Dillon, David Lindley, Roy Bailey, Martin Taylor, David Hidalgo, Steve Miller, Dick Gaughan and many more.

Martin has been nominated an astounding 29 times in the eleven years of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards - more than any other performer - with 11 consecutive years as nominee for Musician of The Year, which he has won twice. 2008 saw an incredible 5 nominations for "Prodigal Son" and 2 wins, whilst in 2010 he had an unprecedented 6 nominations for his CD, "True Stories" and a win for Best Traditional Track, "Sir Patrick Spens".

Whether playing American old-time music, blues, a Dylan song or his own material, Martin Simpson is unpredictable, individual and a guitarist of immense subtlety.

Archaeology Lecture at Dorset County Museum

Dave Parham will talk on The Swash Channel Wreck

LYING just off the Dorset Coast is a famous 17th century shipwreck known as the Swash Channel wreck. A Bournemouth University marine archaeology team has been studying the wreck since 2006 but are now so concerned at the rate of deterioration that they have decided to raise and preserve part of the hull.

The 40 metre long 400 year old vessel lies in approximately 7 metres of water next to the Swash Channel in the approaches to Poole Harbour. The wreck includes ornately carved timbers, the earliest still in existence in Britain, but as the sands shift and expose the timbers to the air, they are literally being eaten away by bacteria and tunnelling shipworms. Dave Parham, a Senior Lecturer in Marine Archaeology at Bournemouth University, is leading a team to save as much of the wreck as possible.

The plan is to remove some of the timbers and preserve them, whilst reburying the rest. It is not possible to cover up the entire wreck as it would create a shipping hazard in a busy channel. Once preserved, the remains will go on display in Poole Museum.

Dave Parham's talk will discuss the history of the Swash Channel Wreck project and bring the audience up to date with news on the most recent excavations and research.

The talk takes place on Friday, December 6th, and is free of charge but a donation of £3 is encouraged to cover costs. Doors open at 7pm and the talk will commence at 7.30pm. For further information please see www.dorsetcountymuseum.org or telephone 01305 262735.

BRIDPORT DANCERS SUPPORT GROUNDBREAKING ALL MALE DANCE THEATRE COMPANY

THERE'LL be a chance to support local talent when Bridport Boys Dance perform a curtain raiser for ZoieLogic, a groundbreaking all male dance-theatre company, at Bridport Arts Centre TONIGHT (Wednesday, November 27th).

ZoieLogic's show ECHO follows the story of mild-mannered Arthur, a young man who works in a mundane office environment. Innocence is lost when he is forced to stand up for himself over a pair of missing scissors.

Expect references to match action, war movies plus a thumping original score created by Ivan.

An audience member new to dance said of ECHO: "I suppose I had a stereotype in my head and that was ripped apart. Maybe the best representation of emotion I have seen in a performance piece."

Bridport Boys Dance are a talented group of 8-11 year olds led by Anna Golding who draw on strength, agility and skill to create contemporary dance.

Tickets cost £12 adults, £10 members, £8 concessions, and £5 under 16s, and are available from Bridport Arts Centre by calling 01308 424204 or visiting www.bridport-arts.com

Treasure Island

A Christmas treat for all the family

WHAT could be better as a Christmas family treat than a tale of Jim Hawkins, Long John Silver, pirates, parrots and treasure?

Robert Louis Stevenson's classic tale 'Treasure Island' comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday, December 6th and to Bridport Arts Centre Saturday, December 7th and is retold by Mike Kenny with a twist.

Mind the Gap theatre company has translated this well-known tale into a mutiny played out in a supermarket where everyday objects are transformed as late-night shelf stackers let their imaginations run wild.

As modern-day and fantasy worlds collide, Flint's Supermarket becomes the scene for adventure where carrots into parrots and cut-loaves into cutlasses! Shopping trolleys become ships, tin cans become parrots and checkouts become desert islands!

This coming of age story is truly for all ages, pirates and good-guys alike. Whether you're a young Cabin Lass or an experienced First Mate, who can resist an adventure on the Seven Seas?

A swashbuckling adventure, preformed by a cast of four professional actors, three of whom have a learning disability, that promises to be hugely entertaining!

Tickets for Friday, December 6th are available from Dorchester Arts 01305 266926 or Dorchester Tourist Information Centre 01305 267992 or online at: www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

'Autumn Voices' fundraiser concert to help give a voice to those most isolated

TIM Graham

LOCAL charity Dorset Advocacy is marking the 'season of mists and mellow fruitfulness' with a fundraising concert at the Town Hall, Dorchester on Friday 29 November at 7.30pm. Acoustic music acts Tim Graham, Nick Parker and Clare and Matt Tarling will all be giving their time, music and songs to help Dorset Advocacy's Got a Voice? campaign.

Got a Voice? trains volunteer advocates to get to know and speak up for people who have dementia or learning disabilities, and have no family or friends to speak up for them. 'Advocates can make the difference between someone getting poor care, or that same person getting the help they need to live with dignity and hope,' says Development Manager Michael Pochin. Advocates visit people regularly, listen to them, and make sure they are getting the best help possible.'

Soulful Tribute to Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers

PIANIST Ray D'Inverno and his quintet featuring Tony Roberts on saxophone play the music of Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, December 6th.

Drummer Art Blakey's brand of bluesy, funky 'hard bop' was and continues to be very influential and his 'Jazz Messengers' were a mainstay of the iconic Blue Note record label. Many jazz greats performed in the group during its long career, notably Horace Silver, Clifford Brown, Lou Donaldson, Wayne Shorter, Bobby Timmons, Lee Morgan, Freddie Hubbard and Cedar Walton.

Art Blakey's ferociousness and tenacity while drumming earned him the nickname "the Tiger of Jazz". In later years he had a policy of encouraging young musicians to perform with the band, once remarking "I'm gonna stay with the youngsters. When these get too old I'll get some younger ones. Keeps the mind active." A notable one of these was trumpeter Wyn-ton Marsalis.

Leading the Blakey tribute band is pianist Ray D'Inverno who has appeared on English and French TV, and regularly plays with his piano trio and Latin band "Mambo Santamaría". Saxophonist Tony Roberts has performed with many jazz luminaries including John Dankworth, John McLaughlin, Mike Gibbs, Kenny Wheeler and Ray Russell as well as appearing in Ian Carr's "Nucleus" and Danny Thompson's "Whatever". Trumpeter Andy Hague is a regular on the Bristol jazz scene and has appeared with the legendary "Portishead". Completing the band are bassist Ben Taylor and drummer Lee Miller.

This will be an evening of toe-tapping, soulful, swinging jazz which is not to be missed.

The tribute to Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers takes place on Friday, December 6th at 8pm. Tickets cost £10 from the Box Office on 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

Return of the Fish Lizard

THE Fish Lizard of Lyme, the hero of a children's book by Carolyn King published earlier this year, makes a welcome return to his inspirational home in an up-coming ArtsFest exhibition at the Lyme Regis Museum's Rotunda Gallery. From December 4th until January 26th, Carolyn will be sharing her fascinating journey with the Fish Lizard across the borders between fine art and illustration in a show entitled 'Blurring the Boundaries'.

Firmly rooted in the fine art tradition, Carolyn first created the Fish Lizard as a sculpture. By later turning it into a children's book, her drawings and paintings for it became 'illustrations'. Yet this journey is also a story of Carolyn's development as an artist in a medium (egg tempera) now normally associated with fine art.

In this engaging and challenging exhibition, Carolyn will encourage us to think about the boundaries between fine art and illustration and whether these borders exist in the mind of the artist, the viewer or both. "Viewers respond differently to cartoon strips and abstract paintings," explains Carolyn, "while appreciating intuitively the qualities of line, colour and concept behind both. But how does the artist negotiate these boundaries? That's what I hope to highlight in this new

Parnham Voices Christmas concert

PARNHAM Voices, the Beaminster based acappella choir, will be singing their Christmas concert at two venues; St. Mary's Church, Netherbury on Saturday, December 7th at 4pm and St. Mary's Church, Halstock on Sunday, December 8th at 3.30pm.

The programme will continue the highly successful theme of the their East to West season with Christmas music of different countries, periods and genre such as the motet O Magnum Mysterium by the American composer Morton Lauridsen, an exciting blend of an ancient Matins chant and contemporary verve, the exquisite carol Chanson Joyeuse de Noel by the 19th century Belgian composer Francois Gevaert and three carols in German. English contributions include Rutter's 'Wassail Song' and to conclude the afternoon 'We Wish you a Happy Christmas', in which the audience can join.

show."

'Blurring the Boundaries' is a continuation of the Lyme Regis ArtsFest-Museum initiative called re:collection, which is supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England. The exhibition is open Wednesdays to Sundays from 11am-4pm. Please check the Museum website (www.lymeregismuseum.co.uk) for holiday opening times. ### Fundraising Choral Concert

A CHORAL Concert in aid of Julia's House and Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance will be held at St Mary's Church, South Street, Bridport on Saturday November 30th at 3.00 p.m. Bride Valley Ladies Choir and Friends, directed by Janet Lane, will perform Handel's Messiah (Part I) and Folk Songs of the Four Seasons (Part IV: Winter) by Ralph Vaughan Williams.

Folk Songs of the Four Seasons is a cantata for women's voices, through which Vaughan Williams confirms his life-long love for English folk songs and folk-carols. It was written for the National Federation of Women's Institutes and was given its first performance by massed choirs of the Federation at the Royal Albert Hall on June 15th 1950. The Bride Valley Ladies Choir will perform the final part, Winter, which comprises four folk-carols: Children's Christmas Song, Wassail Song, In Bethlehem City and God Bless the Master.

Messiah by George Frideric Handel is an English language oratorio composed in 1741 which uses biblical text. First performed in Dublin in 1742, the work received its London première the following year. It is one of the best known and most frequently performed choral works in western music. Written for modest vocal and instrumental forces, this performance will be given by a small chamber choir and string ensemble (leader Wendy Staal). The soloists are John Broad, Ros Broad, Barbara Dale, Gareth Jones and Estelle Wood.

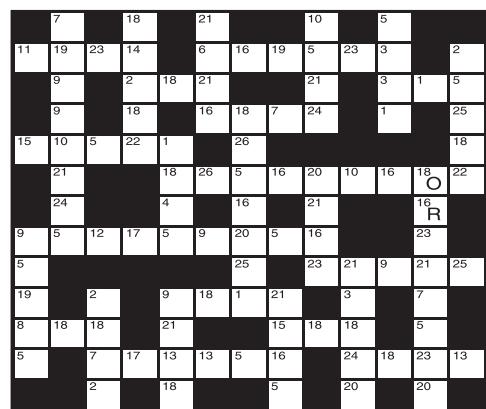

Entry is by programme price £7 (children under 16 £3.50), available by phoning 01308 898648 or at the door.

Audi wins through in UK's largest reliability survey

AUDI is the UK's most reliable manufacturer according to the annual FN50 survey, which this year gauged the opinion of over 600,000 company car drivers served by the nation's most prominent leasing companies.

The FN50 survey, commissioned annually by the specialist fleet title Fleet News, is the nation's largest poll of vehicle reliability. It asks participants from the top 50 (by fleet size) leasing companies to rank the best vehicles and manufacturers for reliability, and then filters each category into a Top 10.

Two Audi models – the A3 compact hatchback and the A4 compact executive Saloon and Avant – appear in the Most Reliable Cars Top 10, the A3 ascending from seventh position last year to fifth in 2013 and the A4 from third to second place. The A1 premium subcompact, the Q3 compact SUV and the TT sports car also climbed the rankings in this year's results. According to the magazine's editorial it is these positive movements which have helped to swing the Most Reliable Manufacturer result in favour of Audi.

At the FN50 Awards, held last night in London, Head of Audi Fleet Sales James Douglas collected the Most Reliable Manufacturer Award on behalf of the brand, and commented: "Fleet managers and the drivers they serve have every right to be a brand's harshest critics because so much of their business life revolves around the cars chosen by, and for them, and they need to be able to count on them unconditionally. We are delighted that the key fleet-focused Audi models continue to uphold our reputation for quality and engineering excellence in the hands of drivers who arguably demand the most from them."

Audi produces an array of models that combine its famed flair for design, technological innovation and exceptional quality of finish with particular focus on cost effectiveness for business users. The range includes a total of 139 options with emissions of less than 140g/km, 57 variants emitting 120g/km or below and nine undercutting the 100g/km marker.

Highlights from among these economy champions include the A4 2.0 TDIe Saloon with its potential for up to 65.7mpg and low 112g/km emissions, the A6 2.0 TDI offering up to 57.6mpg with a 129g/km output and the new generation A8 3.0 TDI quattro, capable of returning up to 47.9mpg while keeping CO<sub>2</sub> down to just 155g/km. For the ultimate in VED-beating financial viability in the line-up, three A3 1.6 TDI variants, including the acclaimed new Saloon, pare emissions back to just 99g/km and boost fuel economy to up to 74.3mpg.

Lanehouse Vauxhall celebrates 20th anniversary of Corsa with new addition

LOCAL Vauxhall retailer, Lanehouse Vauxhall is celebrating the arrival of a brand new addition to the Vauxhall line-up; the Corsa Sting.

Launched in the year that celebrates the 20th anniversary of the popular Corsa model, the sporty new variant is available to order now from the retailer's sites in Bridport and Weymouth and brings even more great value to the range with a highly competitive starting price of just £8,995 on the road.

Destined to be a real head-turner, the all-new Corsa Sting gives customers more equipment for less money and offers eye-catching design.

The model comes with a choice of 16" alloy wheels in a silver finish, complete with matching silver stripes on the bonnet, roof and tailgate and silver exterior mirror caps, whilst the option for 17" alloy wheels comes in a white finish with white twin sports stripes and matching exterior mirrors.

There's also the option of twin black stripes on the bonnet, roof and tailgate with black mirror caps, which is available in combination with either white or black 17" alloy wheels.

Twin black stripes are available with Casablanca white exterior paint. In addition, when black wheels are chosen the option of Sovereign silver exterior paint is also available.

Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Vauxhall comments: "The Vauxhall Corsa has been putting the fun back into driving for the last two decades and within that time we have witnessed the sporty and spacious model rise in popularity. It's now one of Vauxhall's best-selling ranges and the addition of the Corsa Sting to the model's dynamic line-up demonstrates just how versatile and in-demand the vehicle is."

"We are confident that the Corsa Sting's striking appearance, alongside its superb value for money, will really appeal to motorists in the area. We would like to invite the community to stop by our dealership and discover more about this stunning new model."

Spec appeal

The Corsa Sting is available in a range of solid, metallic and pearlescent colours, and comes with a choice of three engines: a 1.0i 12v petrol, a 1.2i 16v VVT petrol and a 1.3 CDTi 75PS ecoFlex diesel.

The 1.0i 12v petrol engine offers unique features such as 16" 5-spoke alloy wheels in silver paint finish, twin silver sports stripes on the bonnet, roof and tailgate, and silver exterior mirror caps. Meanwhile, the Corsa Sting 1.2i 16v VVT petrol engine and the 1.3 CDTi 75PS ecoFlex diesel engine variants come with 17" double spoke alloy wheels in white paint finish, twin white sports stripes on the bonnet, roof and tailgate, and white exterior mirror caps

All Corsa Sting models feature a superior spec as standard, including CD/MP3 CD Player, aux in socket & stereo radio (CD30 MP3), electrically adjustable door mirrors, remote control central locking and speed-sensitive power steering.

In addition, the Corsa Sting comes with a Vauxhall warranty that could last a lifetime, offering first owners complete peace of mind for as long as they own the car, up to 100,000 miles.

Spread the cost of motoring with a Vauxhall service plan

GROWTH in Vauxhall Service Plan uptake shows that an increasing number of customers are spreading the cost of their servicing and enjoying peace-of-mind motoring.

In 2012, sales of Vauxhall Service Plans increased 75 per cent against 2011. This year the uptake is continuing, with sales up 25 per cent.

Service plans allow motorists to spread the cost of their servicing by paying a fixed amount every month, so that when their car needs a service, all the costs have been paid for in advance, including parts and labour and an advisory brake fluid change.

The latest Vauxhall Service Plan has now been released for ADAM, at just £15 per month for any model, over a two, three or four year period. The plans are inflation-proof having been fixed at today's prices, as well as being interest-free, giving Vauxhall owners the very best value for money.

"Service Plan holders enjoy greater peace-of-mind, knowing that their servicing costs have been paid for upfront, avoiding a larger one-off servicing bill," said Belinda Craik, Vauxhall's Service Channel Manager.

"All services are carried out by Vauxhall trained technicians who know Vauxhalls best and the Vauxhall service stamp in the logbook will help to maintain the car's resale value."

Goodship missile sinks high-flying U's

SUTTON UNITED 0 DORCHESTER TOWN 1

Calor Premier -att: 646

DORCHESTER Town produced one of the top performances of the season in the Skrill Conference South when they beat title contenders Sutton United at Gander Green Lane on Saturday with a goal from Brandon Goodship just after the hour to lift them off bottom spot.

The odds were certainly stacked against the Magpies as their team decimated of experienced players by the Community Trust's decision to slash the playing budget by over 60 per cent at the beginning of the season, took on the U's whose players are full time.

Dorchester lined up with five who were playing in the reserves last year and two loanees from AFC Bournemouth to supplement the handful of experienced players still at the club.

They also included a new signing, Sam Lanahan who was playing for Hamworthy United in the Dorset Premier League the week before.

Such is Sutton's situation that they had players on their bench earning thousands more than Dorchester's total budget of just over £1000 a week.

The Magpies showed changes from last week with both Jake Smeeton (dead leg) and Ashley Vickers and Jake Rowley unable to travel at the last moment due to a work problem.

They were also missing Neil Martin who left the club after signing for Poole Town midweek, another massive blow to the club.

Dorchester were excellent all over the pitch with Alan Walker-Harris producing another excellent performance between the sticks, and Steve Walker and skipper Mark Jermyn organising a defence that, despite a constant bombardment of crosses and waves of attack, hardly gave the U's a clear cut chance on goal.

In midfield Sam Lanahan, showed that he will be an asset working to Simkin's orders in midfield, whilst Goodship up front was always a threat despite limited opportunities.

Sutton, as expected, dominated possession and Walker-Harris was soon in action, quickly rushing from goal to save from Craig Dundas after he was put in the clear by Ali Fuseini, before brilliantly turning Dean McDonald's shot destined for the top corner over the top.

Despite the pressure, Dorchester countered well when they could and just before the break, Simon Downer failed to cut out a ball leaving Goodship clear on goal but host keeper Tom Lovelock was quickly off his line to make a good save.

It was much the same at the beginning of the second-half and Walker-Harris tipped Fuseini's 20-yard shot around the post before the magpies got the all important goal.

Alex Godfrey who replaced Josh Wakefield just before the break, chipped the ball into Goodship on the right of the penalty area who neatly brought the ball down before driving his shot across Lovelock into the corner of the net.

Almost immediately Jamie Slabber headed against the Magpies crossbar following a free kick in one of the rare times the U's breached their defence.

But Goodship almost added a second when he struck the inside of the post from a Jack Twyford pass.

Fuseini rattled a Dorchester upright 12 minutes from time from a free-kick but the visitors held out despite the inordinate additional 11 minutes of added time.

Ford drives through Dolphins

WEYMOUTH 4 POOLE TOWN 0

Red Insure Cup R2 - att: 205

MARK Ford scored all four goals as Weymouth cruised through to the third round of the Red Insure Cup against neighbours Poole Town at the Bob Lucas Stadium last Wednesday.

The ex-Blandford United striker put the Terras ahead in the 11th minute from the penalty spot, sending 'keeper Billy Lowes the wrong way, after he was brought down by Sam Clarke as he was about to shoot, having been put clear by Dave Allen's exquisite pass.

He doubled the lead on 54 minutes firing home Jamie Symes' pass from close in after the former Bridport player had played a one-two with Allen, and completed his hat trick after a mix-up between Steve Richardson and Lowe, and a lucky rebound left him with an empty net.

He completed a great night by adding his and Weymouth's fourth in the last minute to complete the rout.

Allen claims the points for Terras

WEYMOUTH 2 ARLESEY TOWN 1

Calor South - att: 492

WEYMOUTH got back to winning league points when they edged past Arlesey Town at the Bob Lucas Stadium on Saturday.

Stewart Yetton hit the post on 12 minutes following good work by Luke Burbridge, but it wasn't until just before the break that either side produced anything to really threaten when Ben Joyce gave the Terras the lead.

An attack appeared to be going nowhere as the visitors got numbers back while Weymouth probed.

Then Joyce, receiving the ball wide left, jinked inside, slipped and recovered, before turning Powell and firing a low 25 yard shot into the bottom right corner of Jack Bonham's goal.

Yetton almost immediately struck the bar with a header.

But the visitors equalised on 54 minutes when Jonny McNamara outpaced Barry McConnell in chasing a long ball out of defence, before turning the full-back and firing a vicious angled shot into the roof of the net from an acute angle before Michael Walker could block.

Arlesey could have snatched the lead soon after, but it was the Terras that claimed the points just after the hour.

Scott Walker's free-kick from wide on the right was punched away by Bonham, but only to Dave Allen who volleyed the ball high and wide of the keeper from 15 yards for the winner.

Yetton should have made the game safe five minutes later but when through on goal fired wide of the upright.

Football round-up

Two off in Portland loss

Round-up

MERLEY Cobham Sports stay in pole position in the Dorset Premier league despite a 2-0 defeat at Mere Town who's marksmen were Malachi Benjamin in the 52nd minute and Scott Martin in the 88th minute.

But Portland United missed their chance to take over at the top when they went down 3-2 at Cranborne who gained notable revenge for their 9-0 defeat at Portland six weeks ago.

The Cranes took the lead in the ninth minute but Portland hit back through Lewis Clarke in the 34th minute.

On the hour the Cranes restored their lead and then went 3-1 up 15 minutes from time courtesy of two own goals from the unfortunate Dan Newham.

The Islanders pulled it back to 3-2 with a goal from Lewis Whityon in the 88th minute but it was too little too late.

Portland also had to contend with red cards for Alex Halloran, with the score at 1-0, and Ross Carmichael late-on.

Holt United kept up their recent good form with a 1-0 win against Weymouth Reserves thanks to a Jonathan Watt goal on the hour.

Despite this their fourth defeat the Terras stay in the top four.

Tres Barilles too hot for Raiders despite Kinder blast

Weymouth Raiders 50 Tres Barilles Heat 73

A YOUTHFUL Weymouth Raiders were looking for their first win in Solent Men's Basketball League Division 4.

Their unbeaten hosts Tres Barilles Heat took the lead with early baskets from Kyle Houlden and Jay Wilson.

Jake Kinder scored 11 points in the first quarter to push the Raiders ahead 15-13, but the second quarter was, however, not as successful for Weymouth as Tres finished the half strongly to lead by ten points.

The start to the second-half saw Weymouth tougher on defence and quicker on the fast-break opportunities, and 19 straight points from MVP Kinder helped change the way the Raiders looked at the game.

At one point Weymouth were only one point adrift, but as the quarter finished Tres led 47-42.

Unfortunately, the Portsmouth-based team tore away and scored 26 points in the fourth quarter. Consolation baskets from Jay Wilson and Max Gilmarin were not enough to stop the visitors closing out the game 73-50. Coach Andy Blackwood said: "It was unfortunate for the boys to put in a great performance and not come away with a win because of a poor fourth quarter. If we tighten up our defence, our future performances might see a dramatic change".

Scorers/Roster: Jake Kinder 32, Matt Clarke-Williams 6, Jay Wilson 4, Max Gilmarin 4, Jerry Thompson 2, Kyle Houlden 2, Steve Reece, Scott White, Jake Durston, Alex Mills.

Youth rugby - Dorchester u12
DORCHESTER Under 12's scored a double over Oakmedians despite the visitors being stronger and better drilled than in previous encounters which was to their credit.

In Match 1 the early exchanges were tightly contested with the forwards on both sides working hard, however Oaks won several scrums and were winning the loose ball with alarming ease. Dorchester took the lead when John Stewart smashed his way through for the first try.

Then Zack Southall blistered his way across the line to score, and he scored again following a strong run from Stefan Perry.

Three minutes later Perry picked on a loose ball to dive across the line and he scored again soon after to make it 25-0 and the match was then out of reach for Oaks.

Match 2 saw several good runs by Taylor Moore driving through the opposition, before neat interplay between Perry and Nathan McNab led to Moore scoring.

Perry followed up from the kick off, his speed leaving the opposition standing

Successful season for Weymouth Rowing Club

MORE than 100 members and guests attended Weymouth Rowing Club's end of season evening event at Weymouth Sailing Club. Tributes were paid to the club's serving officers and awards were presented.

During the season the Club enjoyed successes at various regattas throughout the southwest including the world championships at the Isles of Scilly.

with a solo try from one end to the other.

After the break Dorchester established a dominant lead with Tao White scoring quickly.

They then began to lose shape and gave away a couple of penalties.

Blues break Sherborne's unbeaten run

Bridport 16 Sherborne 2nd 11

SHERBORNE 2nds came to the Brewery Field boasting a winning run of eight games, and for the first quarter of this match looked like they were going to make it nine.

After 11 minutes in the Bridport half the visitors worked an unconverted try to left wing Steffan Hammelberg who went over in the corner, and Bridport did not cross the halfway line until the match was 20 minutes old. Disappointingly this was only a brief visit as they were soon pushed back down the field where Sherborne won a penalty in front of their own posts with a Greening whose penalty gave the Blues the lead.

Soon after a large deer racing across the pitch surprised everyone; no one at the club ever recalling such an incident before. This distraction seemed to let Sherborne back into the game with a penalty kick, enhanced by ten metres for backchat, and released Tony Dommett to score out wide.

The match levelled out over the second half. Front row changes saw Bridport scrum domination decline, and the flair of the first half was replaced by some dogged wrestling-style play at both ends.

However, Greening mastered two long-range penalties to close the match at 16-11 to Bridport. Tim Edwards was Palmers Wine Store Man-of-the-Match.

This was a worthy result for Bridport after several successful training evenings under coach Krissie Washington and a mountain of backstage work by team manager Grant Connolly. There is a definite buzz about the club lately.

The 1st XV travel to Swanage on Saturday.

◆ BRIDPORT RFC are sending some candidates to an entry-level referee course over two days on December 14th/15th at Wimborne.

Lytchett Minster 2nd 23 Bridport 2nd 17

BRIDPORT started brightly and it looked like the game could be quite one-sided as stand-off Tom Wren easily cut through the Lytchett defence and released Tony Dommett to score out wide.

Unfortunately Bridport failed to capitalise on this impressive start and got dragged into a hard slog up front with a much larger and heavier opposing pack.

Lytchett's forward domination resulted in consecutive tries as they kept the ball tight and battered their way over the line for three almost identical tries to leave the score line 17-5 at halftime.

Poor discipline in front of the Bridport posts resulted in the hosts increasing their advantage with two successful penalties.

As the second half progressed Bridport eventually began to settle and play to their strengths.

Rob Parker ran the ball out of defence which led to some great interplay with Chris Lamb and Darren Brown, enabling Jamie Livingston to run in from the opposition 22 to score.

Then a few minutes later, quick distribution resulted in Callum Barnes making impressive ground down the wing until he was illegally stopped by a high tackle resulting in a penalty try.

Now with renewed belief Bridport tried to run the ball at every opportunity but Lytchett were able to withstand the onslaught to gain victory 23-17.

Bridport can take solace from the good rugby that they played to get back into the game in addition to the losing bonus point.

Although a loss it was a great relief to have a fulfilled fixture after the disappointments of cancelled games earlier this season.

The seconds will be at home to Weymouth III on Saturday.

Bridport Youth Taunton U12 32 Bridport 19

ALTHOUGH Bridport made a slow start against a very well drilled Taunton side, they kept their hosts from the try line with some very good defence.

However, Taunton's pressure eventually told, and they ran in three tries before half-time.

Bridport were a totally different team after the break and were rewarded with a try.

They then collected a big kick from the Taunton back, and once again quick, decisive ball handling saw them score a second.

Although Taunton ran in a number of tries to win the match comfortably, Bridport were rewarded for an excellent display with a third score a few moments from time.

Dorchester U16 62 Bridport 13

A TOUGH match for Bridport's U16s, with nine players missing due to injury, and full-strength Dorchester took advantage to lead 30-0 by half-time.

Bridport's forwards fought back in the second half with Freddie Walner kicking two penalties, and a lovely kick over Dorchester's defence saw George Pearce touchdown in the corner which was converted to provide some consolation.

West Dorset Indoor Youth Cricket League

Weymouth U12 A 164-1 beat Weymouth B 85 by 79 runs

WEYMOUTH'S A team didn't have it all their own way against their B team in a game that produced some excellent cricket.

The A team's top three batsman all retired having reached 25, but they never got fully on top as the younger and less experienced B team battled well, with Ben being the pick of the bowlers returning figures of 3-0-21-1.

The B team began well scoring 38 off the first three overs, with Ben once again making a big impact with a cultured 39 not out.

The A team stuck to their guns and some excellent work in the field enabled them to dismiss their counterparts for 85 with 3.5 overs remaining and remain undefeated having won all three to date.

Cerne Valley U12 149-1 beat Charlton Down 107-4 by 42 runs.

CERNE were made to fight hard to maintain their unbeaten record against a rapidly improving Charlton Down in a thrilling encounter.

Batting first Cerne made a steady start against some excellent bowling from both A Felton and D Davis as both sides sought to gain the upper hand.

Cerne quickly found their stride and the runs began to mount up as W Simpson (28no), Finley (28no) and David Gray (24) punished anything wayward with good shot selection and well judged running between the wickets.

Charlton Down never gave up and made Cerne work hard for every run as they produced cricket of the highest standard which outlines their rapid improvement over the course of the season.

Charlton's reply began slowly as Cerne's bowlers produced excellent line and length which proved difficult to get away.

Two run outs didn't help their cause as Cerne began to turn the screw with a superb display in the field.

However it was not all one way traffic as Alex Felton (46 no), well supported by Davis (14) and Morrison (13) made Cerne battle all the way for a hard earned victory.

League Coordinator Grant Neven had nothing but praise for all the players: "These youngsters are producing great cricket and showing the highest standard of sportsmanship; everyone is a credit to their respective clubs."

Portland U12 beat Dorchester (walkover) DORCHESTER were unable to field a team.

Football - Bees news

WITH STUART BROOM

Late goal denies Bees maximum points

WINTERBOURNE UTD 2 BRIDPORT 2

Toolstation Premier -att: 33

BRIDPORT came within four minutes of victory at Winterbourne United on Saturday. Leading 2-1 they were looking get back to winning ways after their dismal defeat at Chard Town in the Les Phillips Cup midweek, when they were pegged back by a superb equaliser.

With a late arrival only allowing a quick pre-match warm-up, and playing on an unfamiliar artificial 3G surface, Bridport took time to get their game going, and Winterbourne dictated the opening exchanges, forcing Bees keeper Sam Filkins into a couple of save from long range efforts.

Slowly the Bees got accustomed to the unfamiliar surface and they created probably the best chance of the game when Chris Senior having played a neat one-two found blazed over from 12 yards out.

It was Winterbourne who took the lead just before the interval when Ashley Staines having robbed his opponent 25 yards out, relinquished possession immediately, and the home player took a touch before firing a hard, low shot beyond Filkins into the corner of the net.

Bridport came out with purpose after the break and Ryan Dovell might have done better two minutes after the restart had he not placed his shot rather than use power after being put through which saw his shot fly high over the crossbar.

However, he grabbed the equaliser soon after when he was on hand to score at the far post after Matt Condliffe had worked his way to the byline before chipping the ball over the keeper.

Both then had chances as Bridport started to dominate the play as did Matt Morley who having broken through the home defence, hesitated and was hustled off the ball by retreating defenders.

Bridport's dominance was rewarded with a second goal when Dan Wise's free-kick was headed home by Tom Richardson at the far post.

It looked like the Bees would secure all three points, but Winterbourne found a second wind and started to come back into the game towards the end and grabbed an equaliser with four minutes remaining.

A right wing swerving shot hit the far post and rebounded out, and when Bridport failed to clear the ball cleanly, it fell to a home player on the edge of the box who hit a terrific shot just inside Sam Filkins post for the equaliser.

The Bees could still have won it in the dying minutes when Richardson's side footed volley hit the side netting.

Clark brace spells exit for Bees*Chard Town 2 Bridport 0

Les Phillips Cup R1 - 74

BRIDPORT surrendered their six-match unbeaten run with a poor performance at Zembard Lane where two second half goals from Sam Clark saw Chard Town progressed to the next round of the Les Phillips Cup.

The Bees looked a shadow of the side that has won five of their last six, failing to overcome a bumpy pitch, gusty wind and intermittent showers and a Chard side sporting a number of reserves.

Although neither side inspired in the first half, it was Bridport, kicking down the slope, who started brightest and Darren Watts had a shot blocked within 14 seconds of the start, whilst at the other end it took a smart tackle from Shane Evans to deflect Ed Butcher's shot for a corner five minutes later.

Ryan Dovell then put his header just wide of the near post from Chris Luke's cross, whilst Ashley Weeks was forced to punch the ball away under pressure after Ben Haines cross had been deflected up in the air.

The talented Clark might have done better on 14 minutes than to blast his 20-yard shot over the bar but neatly beating two defenders.

Matt Morley's speed down the left was causing the Robins defence problems but for once a stream of crosses were easily picked off by the home defence in which central defenders Leigh Bailey and Jamie Underwood look solid. One long looping Morley cross however did cause keeper Jason Hutchings concern as he had to paw the ball away from under the crossbar.

Chard's experience at playing on their sloping pitch paid dividends as they broke with pace when they could, and Weeks was forced into a diving save low to his left from Butcher's 20 yard shot.

Goalless at the break, the Robins came out with much more drive in the second half using the long ball over the top of the Bees defence to great effect, and Mike McCormick fired a shot over the top from 25 yards when the ball broke to him early on.

A neat piece of football nearly brought Bridport a goal when Dovell's angled pass saw Morley just thwarted by Hutchings who raced out of the box to clear with a sliding tackle, before Dan Wise's left sided free-kick was headed off the line at the far post by Bailey.

Butcher might have done better after cutting inside but finished with a weak shot past the post, before Clark after stepping inside tackles from Ashley Staines and Shane Evans, fired high over Weeks' upright.

However he was on the mark on the hour with a glorious strike to give Chard the lead. A long ball out of defence was just too high for Ryan Hater, and Clark who was at his shoulder was immediately on it, hitting a glorious 25-yard volley over Weeks.

With their tails up leading higher opposition, the Robins were relentless. Hayter immediately had to produce a superb tackle to stop Nathan Warren shooting, before Butcher fired a 35-yard shot just wide of the left upright.

Bridport attacks were limited, but Jamie Barfoot did well to divert Luke's shot for a corner.

Manager Trevor Senior went for broke on 72 minutes by sending on all three substitutes, but within two minutes Chard had doubled the advantage.

Evans, who had been the one Bridport success on the night, failed to cut out a through ball and Clark drive his shot from the edge of the box just beyond Weeks right hand and into the bottom corner.

Bailey did head another Wise free-kick off his line late on, but Chard were in command and Andy Martin almost made it three deep into added time with an angled drive that hit the side netting.

Ressies back in the saddle*BRIDPORT RESERVES 2 WAREHAM RANGERS 2

THE saying goes that if you fall off a horse, the best response is to get back on immediately and that it appears is what Bridport Reserves did following their dismal display a week earlier when they were beaten in the Dorset Senior Trophy by Poole Borough Reserves.

Although they only earned a point in their match with Wareham Rangers at St Mary's Field, manager Robin Townsend was pleased with his side's reaction and felt they were a little unlucky not to have taken all three points.

"All in all that was 100 per cent better; it couldn't get much worse than last week though. We probably deserved all three points, but we made two small errors and were punished for them."

"It was good to have Sean Stewart back again a bit more energy and is not afraid to get stuck in."

Bridport started brightly and went ahead after 12 minutes when Stewart finished off a good team move by calmly firing into the bottom corner from 15 yards.

They continued to dictate and created one or two good chances, and Jack Scovell who had done well to reach the ball after being put through, just missed out on a one-on-one with the keeper.

The Bees should have increased their lead midway through the half when Michael Hailu was pulled back as he was about to score after the Rangers' keeper had spilled a shot. However Ashley Clarke's woeful penalty flew a good yard wide of the upright.

Heads appeared to drop at this point, and Nathan Harvey took the opportunity to equalise for Wareham.

"The lads were disappointed and their heads were down a bit at half-time," said Townsend.

However Hailu lifted their spirits immediately after the restart by once again latching on to a rebound after the goalkeeper dropped Scovell's shot; this time scoring instead of being impeded.

Bridport appeared in command until they switched off on the hour and David Best headed home from a corner.

Townsend added: "It appears we are being punished for the smallest of mistakes, whereby we don't take advantage when the opposition make errors."

"The game petered out after this with Wareham I think grateful for a point. I was disappointed that we didn't take all three points on the possession and chances we had, but in the end I was happy that we had stopped the rot."

"We now need to build on this and go on a run and build our confidence. There is no doubt we have the ability."

◆ Bridport 3rds went down 2-0 against Swanage Town & Herston Reserves in their Dorset League Division One match.

Team performance sees Bridport home*BRIDPORT U14 3 SHAFTESBURY 2

FOR the second week running Bridport conceded an early goal; again after a early defensive mistake which gifted the visitors a dream start.

But that's where the similarities to last week ended, as the whole side stood up and performed like a team that deserves to wear the Bridport shirt.

Although they gifted a second after a mistake at the back after Sam Handyside had pulled them level, the home team never really looked too worried and just did what they do best; get the ball down and play.

Bridport looked strong with Henry Davey and Callan Lowden causing the visitors plenty of trouble, and with Harry Kirby dropping back into defence allowing Dane James to step into a rare midfield performance.

When the visitors did get a chance of a shot at the home goal keeper Jordan Scadding was at the top of his game pulling off some great saves to thwart the frustrated Shaftesbury strikers.

In the end it was Lowden that equalised to bring Bridport square before he scored the winner.

The whole team however deserve a pat on the back for never giving up and sending the visitors home empty handed.

Bowls*No joy in Weymouth

BRIDPORT men had mixed fortunes in their Wessex League match against Moonfleet's B Team.

Stars of the show were Phil Hedges, Brian Galpin, Bob Taylor and Ivor Parker's four, hammering their opponents 28-6 for two points.

Brian Baker, Dave Roberts, Derek Harp and Brian Rumble were 14-12 up after 14 ends but a poor finish saw them slump to a 15-25 defeat.

At Weymouth, a great effort from Arthur Stone, Mel Griffiths, Brian Conisbee and Ken Enticott saw them defeated 19-20, but Max Dare, Brian Morgan, Bill Payne and Keith Gentry went down 11-34.

In their National Inter-Club Knockout Cup Plate match against Wellworthy, Bridport were beaten overall, the only winning rink were Baker, Mike Parsons, Taylor and Enticott.

Madeira (Exmouth) were the latest visitors to Bridport for a four rink mixed triples friendly, winning 71-50 overall.

For the second week running Bridport had to help out their opponents by providing one triple as Madeira were one short.

Lyn Sandall, Keith Jenkins and Brian Baker did the honours and beat Roger Cowmeadow, Gill Hunt and Brian Rumble 15-11.

Peter Sandall, Mary Hansford and Mike Long were Bridport's top trio with a fine 23-12 win. Mel Hargett, Robin Pither and Max Dare went down 11-21, whilst Pat Cowmeadow, Mike Parsons and Martin Wilton lost 5-23.

Pat Cornick made a dream debut for Dorset in the National County Knockout competition for the Atherley Trophy.

Playing at two with stalwart Francis Hewett at lead they claimed top rink of six, as Dorset continued their quest to retain the Trophy they won last year; Margaret Clapp also retaining her spot in fine style.

Parents get the jump on juniors in annual match

WEST Bay Sea Angling Club's parents ran out winners of this year's Juniors v Parents annual competition, taking the top five positions.

The juniors' biggest event of the year finally took place after having had to be postponed for two weeks due to gales.

Thankfully, there was hardly a breath of wind on the re-scheduled date with sunshine at the start of the match; a flat calm sea greeted the competitors although still quite coloured after the recent windy period.

A near record 42 competitors signed on to fish, consisted of 17 juniors and 25 adults.

The match is open to all friends, family and members of the club with some mums, aunts and grandmothers fishing for the first time in their lives, with the match a catch and release where all fish are weighed with legal-sized fish taking precedence.

The fishing turned out to be quite poor with only seven juniors catching, and only one sizeable fish between them. Ten adults managed to land fish and dominate the top five positions with top junior Aaron Chambers coming in at sixth place.

The match also combined the first Jurassic League competition, which takes the junior matches up to Christmas, and the Junior Shore Festival Cup which is awarded to the best junior of the match.

The juniors struggled on the day with only Aaron Chambers and Jamie Salvador Swords managing to land two fish each with other competitors only managing one each of very small flounder and rockling, resulting in Chambers taking the cup with a legal-sized rockling and smaller specimen, with Salvador Swords runner-up and Yasmin Harwood in third place.

Chambers also received a reel donated by Seaton Angling Centre.

FULL RESULTS: 1st: Aaron Chambers 63g (47g legal), 2nd: Jamie Salvador Swords 50g, 3rd Yasmin Harwood 35g, Heaviest flat: Yasmin Harwood 35g, Wooden spoon: Jack Gosney - Sponsors: Seaton Angling Centre, Watchouse Cafe, Kay Guppy and Richard 'Tiny' Daw.
